Sub: Postponed our Faculty Development Program on Data Science and Big Data Analytics

Sir,

With due respect I would like to inform you that according to our honorable Vice chancellor notice regarding the precautionary steps to prevent the outbreak of Coronavirus (CONVID-19), we are going to postponed our Faculty Development Program on Data Science and Big Data Analytics to be held on 23rd march to 27 the march, 2020 until further notification. Therefore I need permission to upload the postponed notice for the same in our University website.

This is for your kind information and necessary action.

With regards

Ajit Das
