Notification

Dated: 17.04.2020

In view of the present situation and considering the guidelines of total national lockdown due to spread of COVID19, the Bodoland University authority requests all concerned Deans and Heads of the Departments of the University and also all the Principals/faculties of the affiliated colleges/Institute to complete the remaining syllabus through online systems or by group WhatsApp or by other means of applications for students, as we all are aware that the total national lockdown has been extended upto 3rd May, 2020. So, for the stop gap arrangement all the concerned faculties of the University and affiliated colleges are hereby requested to do the same for the greater interest of the students.

The regular functioning of Bodoland University will start, once the situation is declared normal by the State and Central Government or as per the Guidelines notified by the Government sooner or later.

This notification has the approval of Hon'ble VC, BU dated 17.04.2020.
