Notice

In view of a press release, dated 30th August, 2017, printed in some daily news papers of Assam, regarding rejection of Assamese Language in the examinations of the Three Years' Degree Course (TDC) in the Colleges under Bodoland University, it is hereby clarified to all concerned that no such notification was issued from our University.

Indeed, in the Regular Course (Pass Course) papers, students can opt for answering either in English or in Assamese, although in the Honours subjects answering in English is compulsory other than in languages like Assamese, Bengali, Bodo, Hindi etc.
