CONCEPT NOTE

The Bodo language is a rich and one of the ancient language and its proper literature came into being only in the second decade of the 20th century. But the Bodo literature has attained a position of pride with the most unique contribution by the many Bodo writers in the field of literature. This development of Bodo written literature has created an atmosphere of enthusiasm and inspiration to young talented authors. They have devoted wholeheartedly to creative writing, especially poetry and fiction. We can see a large number of Bodo genres in Bodo literature and some writers deserves special attention amongst the authors in Bodo for their excellent literary contribution which seen greatly influenced by the critics of the Bodo. The necessity of critical appreciation of Bodo literature on the lines of western literary criticism gives us a scientific approach of criticism. This National Seminar will enrich Bodo literary criticism by penetrating their critical insight into various genres of Bodo literature. Some literary aspects of writer will be explored and brought to light.
